Santa Claus Stopped At Alexander House!

A

Festive Jun

Christmas Day brought a delightful surprise to the residents of Alexander House as Santa Claus made sure every resident had a present to open.

Christmas Jumper Day

Happy Times!

Residents and staff proudly donned their most festive and colourful jumpers, adding a splash of festive flair to the home. We loved admiring each other's Christmas attire!

Christmas Party Extravaganza

Jestive Celebrations

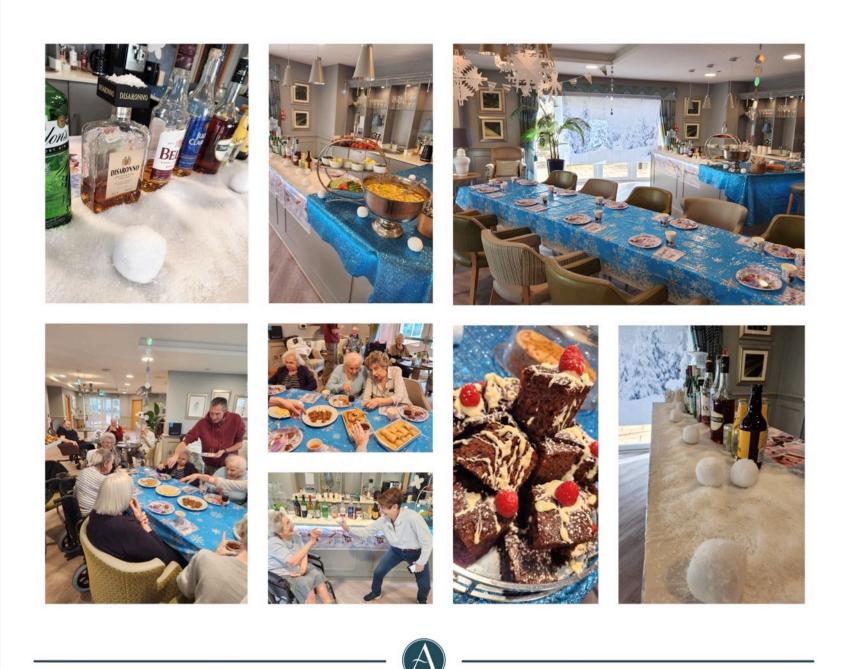

To continue the festive cheer, we hosted a lively Christmas party that brought everyone together for an afternoon of joy and celebration. The atmosphere was filled with festive music, decorations and the laughter of residents and staff alike. The delicious Christmas treats made the gathering even more special, as we indulged in an array of delicious snacks.

Amazing Experience

We embraced a magical Frozen Theme Day that transported us into a winter wonderland. The décor included snowflakes, snowballs and everything that sparkled with enchantment. As part of the celebration, we enjoyed a delightful buffet meal featuring an array of delicious treats, including cakes, ice cream, and a colourful fruit platter. Throughout the day, residents savoured warm drinks that perfectly complimented the festive mood, making it a truly special experience.

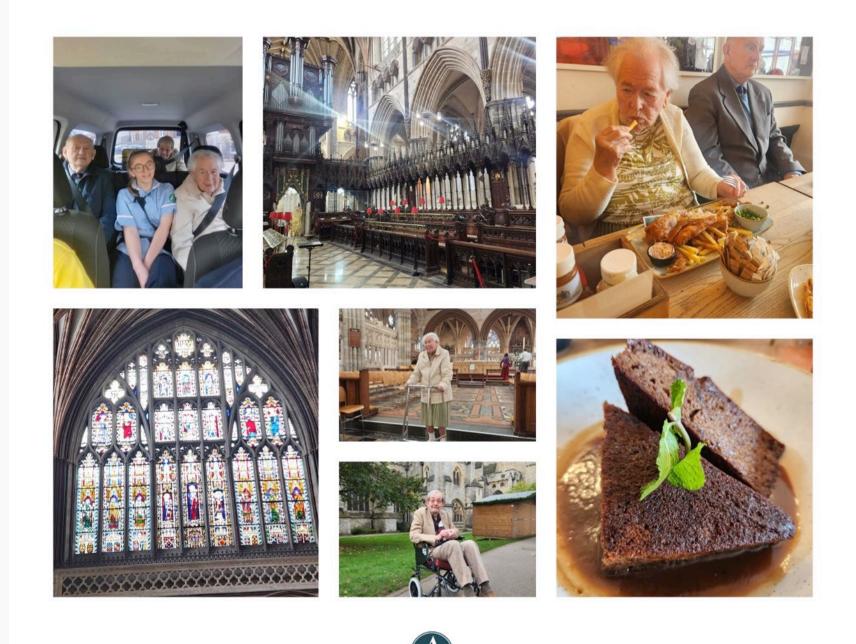

Trip to Exeter Cathedral

Out & About

We took a lovely outing to Exeter Cathedral, where residents enjoyed exploring the stunning architecture and rich history of this magnificent place. After our visit, we took a leisurely stroll around the area, followed by a delightful lunch where we shared stories from the day. The trip was a wonderful way to engage with our community and soak in the beauty of our surroundings.

Spooktacular Halloween Party

Spooky Celebrations

Our Halloween Party was a fantastic way to cap off a week filled with spooky fun! Residents, staff and friends gathered to partake in games and delicious food.
